How much solar energy did China install in 2017?

In the first nine months of 2017, China saw 43 GW of solar energy installed in the first nine months of the year and saw a total of 52.8 GW of solar energy installed for the entire year. 2017 is currently the year with the largest addition of solar energy capacity in China.

Why are solar energy projects being halted in China?

The government incentives have also contributed to the curtailment of solar energy, as many of the solar projects have been built in northern and western regions of China where there is a low demand for electricity and a lack of infrastructure to transfer energy towards China's main power grid.

How big is China's solar energy capacity in 2020?

In 2020, China saw an increase in annual solar energy installations with 48.4 GW of solar energy capacity being added, accounting for 3.5% of China's energy capacity that year. 2020 is currently the year with the second-largest addition of solar energy capacity in China's history.

Why are Chinese government subsidies for solar power a problem?

Government subsidies for solar power have also been attributed to over construction, as many solar power projects have been funded by the Chinese government but are curtailed (they do not operate at full capacity) due to the inability to transfer the full energy capacity from production sites.
